Club Presents Resuscitator Plan Bazaar On Weekend

Continuing their philanthropic work at the Torrance hospital members of the Junior Woman's club presented a manually operated child resuscitator to the hospital staff at its meeting Tuesday evening. Dr. George C. Anderson, acting chief of staff accepted the resuscitator for the hospital from Mrs. James K. Lees, club philanthropic chairman.

The resuscitator, first of its kind at the local hospital, was presented to the American Medical Association in 1954. It was developed by the Lovelace foundation for medical education and research.

Present at the staff meeting with Mrs. Lees, representing the club was Mrs. Sid Gans.

The club recently redecorated the pediatric ward at the hospital and its next project will be the purchase of two new beds for a room in the obstetric ward in the new wing of the hospital.

Chairmen of the annual event are Anthony Brandell, Peter Haboush and Mrs. Jean Farrar. Church groups in charge are Guilds of St. Anne, St. Anthony, St. Francis Xavier, St. Jude, St. Joan of Arc, St. Lucy, St. Mary, St. Margaret Mary, Santa Margarita, Our Lady of Guadalupe, Our Lady of the Rosary, St. Theresa, Holy Name Society, and Children of Mary.

The Rev. John V. Hegarty, pastor, announced the dinner and bazaar would be open to the public.

Harmon-Krause Rites Read at Church of Resurrection

Lutheran church of the Resurrection was the setting on Sept. 2 at 8 p.m. for the wedding of Miss Emma Jo Harmon, of 328 Calle Miramar, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Harmon of Bainville, Montana and Gerald Krause, son of Mr. and Mrs. Otto Krause of Hudson, South Dakota.

For her wedding the bride wore a Chantilly lace gown over satin and carried a bouquet of white roses. Her Juliet cap studded with pearls held the fingertip veil. The bride was given in marriage by Alvin Clark.

Mrs. Dale Johnson in blue taffeta and carrying white gladioli was matron of honor and Mrs. Agatha Rohde, also in pale blue taffeta and carrying white gladioli was her sister's maid of honor.

Gene Herley was best man and Dick Rohde was the usher. The Rev. Lyle B. Gansge officiated.

Mrs. Loren Edmon at the organ provided the music and welcomed Lyle C. Heck and the choir as they sang traditional wedding songs.

A reception was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Clark 330 Calle Miramar at which Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Applegate were co-hosts. Mrs. Robert
